

Welcome to the PhD in RWS at UTEP!

We are incredibly excited, and happy to welcome you to UTEP. As a PhD student in Rhetoric and Writing Studies (RWS) you will need to familiarize yourself with the documents in this portfolio. In this portfolio you will find information on coursework, dissertation, financial aid, and funding opportunities for travel to conferences.

If you have any questions about the program, the documents in this portfolio, or anything UTEP and El Paso related, then please feel free to contact Jennifer Falcon at jfalcon3@utep.edu, or Lizbett Tinoco at ltinoco2@miners.utep.edu. We are here to help you, as best we can, in any way that we can.
